

www.e-ghl.com

eGHL Plugin Installation

For WooCommerce v2.1.x

The ASEAN payment people

Pre-conditions of Installation

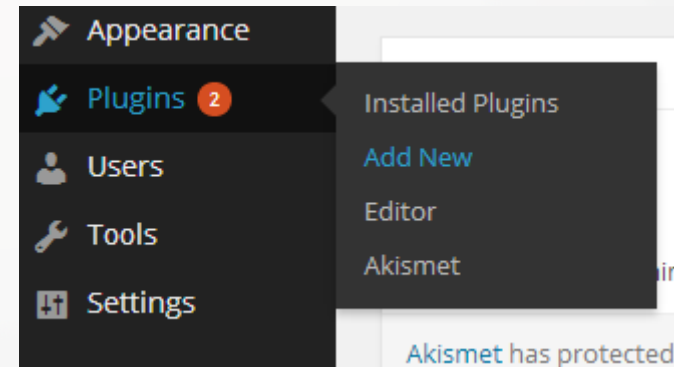

- ✓ Please ensure you have installed WordPress; and
- ✓ Have installed WooCommerce.

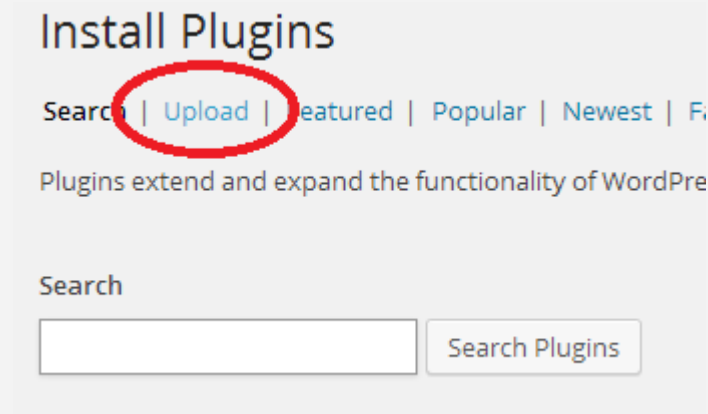

Installation Steps

1. Please login Wordpress dashboard.

2. Click Plugins > Add New.

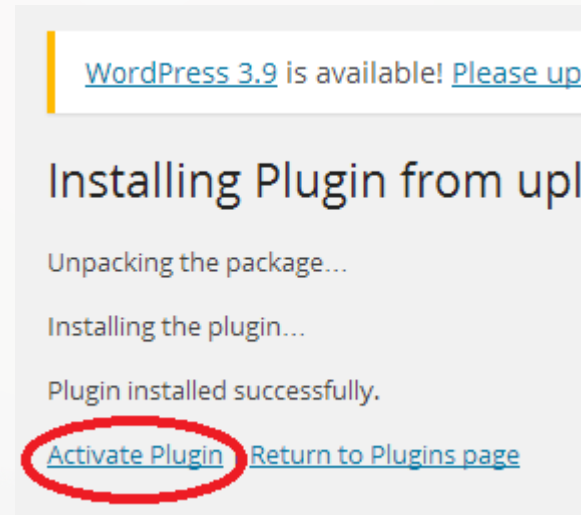

3. Click upload > Choose File – Select the eGHL plugin (in zip) provided > Click Install Now.

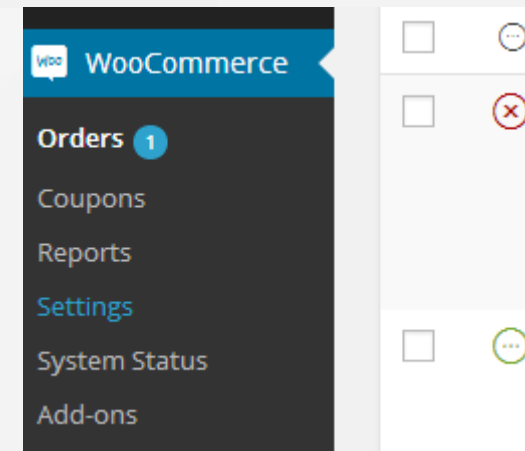

Installation Steps – Cont.

4. Click Activate Plugin.

5. Click WooCommerce > Settings.

6. Click Checkout > eGHL (under Checkout Option).

Installation Steps – Cont.

www.e-ghl.com

7. Please enter your production eGHL Merchant ID in “eGHL Merchant Service ID” column and eGHL Merchant Password in “eGHL Merchant Password” column.
8. Please follow the setting as shown in the illustration beside.
9. Click Save Changes.
10. eGHL plugin activated successfully!

A screenshot of the eGHL plugin settings page. The page is titled "eGHL works by sending the user to eGHL to enter their payment information." and has a "Marla Theme" header. The settings are organized into sections: "Enable/Disable" with a checked checkbox for "Enable Credit Card / Direct Debit Checkout"; "Title" with a text field containing "Credit Card / Direct Debit (via eGHL)"; "Description" with a text area containing "Pay via eGHL; you can pay with your credit card." and a note "This controls the description which the user sees during checkout."; "eGHL Merchant Service ID" with an empty text field; "eGHL Merchant Password" with an empty text field; "Invoice Prefix" with a text field containing "WC-"; "Gateway Testing" with a checked checkbox for "Enable eGHL sandbox" and a note "eGHL sandbox can be used to test payments."; and "Debug Log" with a checked checkbox for "Enable logging" and a note "Log eGHL events, such as IPN requests, inside woocommerce/logs/eghl-c217bbe2bc20525a95d889863bc39837.txt".

The ASEAN payment people

Notes:

- This manual was drafted based on WordPress v3.9 and Woocommerce v2.1.7.
- If you have any question, please contact us: appsupport@e-ghl.com.